

WOMAN MURDERED HER BODY BURNED

Bachelor Farmer Is Held for Crime on the Testimony of His Neighbors.

EVIDENCE FOUND IN ASHES.

Had Been a Transaction in Land—Money Paid May Have Been Motive for Deed.

Logan, Wash., Nov. 2.—Further details of the strange murder of a woman and the burning of her body in a log fire in Huckleberry mountain near Logansburg, Wash., were received here last night.

The woman, it appears, was Mrs. J. J. Janson of Chicago, who was engaged as a housekeeper a few months ago by James Logan, a bachelor farmer, whose ranch is on the west slope of the mountain.

Logan is held for the murder on the testimony of neighboring ranchers and because he was the last person seen with the woman.

The most remarkable bit of testimony comes from Don Taylor, a ranchman of the district. He declared that he saw Logan by the side of a burning log fire and that they talked calmly about a male trade. It was only about a mile away. He said that the ranchers stumbled over the bones of Mrs. Janson and the supposition is that while Logan and Taylor were talking, quietly about the ranch, the woman's body was cremated in front of them.

Whether Logan killed the woman and placed her body in the fire still remains unexplained from any positive standpoint. P. C. McCreath, another neighbor, told the authorities that Logan had said to him that he had sold 40 acres of his farm to Mrs. Janson for $1,000, and that she was about to make a trip to Chicago to induce settlers to come into the northwest country.

It was on some business connected with this transaction, in all probability, that Mrs. Janson and Logan started out from the Logan ranch for Blue Creek last Friday morning.

Logan took a circuitous route that day. He is said to have retraced his way over the mountain twice before reaching the secluded spot where the woman was murdered.

Whether there was a quarrel or not Logan has not divulged; neither will he say what became of the woman. The two were lost to view. When Taylor came upon Logan at the fire, Logan was calm and at ease. Two hours later Taylor again ran across Logan.

At that time Logan's horses were tied to a tree and the man apparently was asleep under the wagon, with the woman still missing.

When night came Logan drove to a nearby ranch and rested there, going on the next day until he was arrested.
Mrs. Janson's trunk had been recovered.
It was shipped by Logan.

DEIVING DEFENSE AGAINST AERIAL INVASION

Washington, Nov. 1.—To devise some means of defense against aerial invasion the bureau of ordinance of the war department. It was learned today, is about to begin a series of experiments of shooting at air craft with cannon.

The experiments will be carried on at the Sandy Hook proving grounds in New Jersey. Capt. Charles Doy Chandler of the signal corps, one of the two qualified pilots in the army, left Washington today for New York to make arrangements for the balloons to be used.
He will be stationed temporarily at Fort Wood, near New York, for that purpose.

Three balloons of comparatively small size will be purchased. No one will occupy the baskets of the balloons when they are in progress.

Signal corps soon will be engaged in problems of navigating the air craft.

Experiments will be conducted in muzzling the motors of the Wright aerplane owned by the government so that the flight of an aeroplane may be made comparatively noiseless. Attempts to communicate by wireless telegraphy from an aeroplane also will be made.

INTERNATIONAL AERONAUTIC PILOTS

Boston, Nov. 1.—The first association of international aeronautic pilots was organized here today. It marked the one hundred and nineteenth anniversary of the first ascent of a man in a balloon from Boston. Membership will comprise persons who have qualified and held balloon pilot licenses, and is to be devoted to the encouragement of members of air clubs to become navigators of air craft.

France leads with 114 aeronautical pilots, the United States and Great Britain have 35 each.

Charles J. Glidden of Boston was elected president.

CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER CREATES A SENSATION

Washington, Nov. 1.—Chief Justice Fuller today created a mild sensation in the supreme court of the United States by announcing that papers in the case of the Yellow Poplar Lumber company vs. S. F. Chapman would be stricken from the records of the court because of their "scandalous nature."

The controversy involves a lumber deal in Virginia. The court of appeals decided in favor of Chapman and in its opinion the company asks a review on various grounds, one of which is stated as follows:

"The opinion of the court of appeals is so grotesque in its conclusions of law and so prepared with so little care and study as to be almost unintelligible even grammatically, not to say legally."

The chief justice did not quote any portion of the papers, but said they were "so impertinent and improper that they would be stricken from the docket."

San Francisco, Nov. 1.—When Nicholas was a carpenter, went to his home for lunch today, the meal was not ready. He reproved his wife for her tardiness and started for a restaurant. As soon as he had left the house a pistol shot was heard and Nicholas' back became swollen and unconscious, with a bullet wound in the head. She cannot recover. Silver is being held by the police pending an investigation of the tragedy.

RATTLESNAKE ANTIDOTE SAVED CHARMER'S LIFE

New York, Nov. 1.—The efficacy of an antidote for rattlesnake venom, which is kept in stock at the Bronx zoo, is credited with saving the life of Albert Pierce, the snake charmer who was bitten by a large rattlesnake in a manus here on Sunday. After being bitten Pierce was taken to a hospital and a few hours later in a hospital he became delirious. The antidote was administered through the abdominal cavity and the result was that the effect of the poison was quickly neutralized, and while at one time it was believed that Pierce would quickly die, he will now recover completely.

Dodd's administrator has reported to the court that the artery was cut as
